

Name _____ Class pd. _____ Date _____ Score _____

Even an Invisible Man . . .

Directions: Answer the following questions.

1. Revisit the second paragraph in the epilogue. What is the paradox or irony that the narrator is discussing, and how has it helped him better deal with people?
2. What does the narrator mean when he talks about true darkness?
3. Reread the paragraph that begins, "So why do I write. . . ." What point is the narrator trying to convey?
4. What does the narrator mean when he talks about the end of his hibernation?
5. Explain in what sense it is true that the narrator is an invisible man.