Focus on Themes

Directions: Many themes emerge early in Invisible Man. Answer the questions; provide textual support.

1. How do you see an “us versus them” mentality being established through the early parts of the book?
2. How is the concept of identity and self-awareness handled thus far in the book?
3. Does the narrator seem to view human beings as cogs more than as people? Explain.
4. What is another theme that you see being established? Explain.
