

Name _____ Class pd. _____ Date _____ Score _____

Slave No More

Directions: Conduct research and reflect on the novel to answer the following questions regarding Frederick Douglass's narrative.

1. What happened to Frederick Douglass after the fight with Mr. Covey?
2. What role did Douglass play in the abolition movement?
3. How would the narrator of Invisible Man view a man like Douglass?
4. Who serves as a “Mr. Covey” in the narrator’s life? Explain.
5. Just when it seems he breaks free from those who hold him down, he discovers ulterior motives and realizes that people in a new group are playing him as a fool. Can the cycle be broken? What will it take for the narrator to break the chains that bind him?